Definite Linux Bookshelf

Reference

www.definitesoftware.com

Linux HOWTO's
The Linux HOWTO's are detailed "how to" documents on specific subjects.

Linux MAN Pages Last updated on May 9, 1999
These are the man pages written by the Linux Documentation Project.

Linux Frequently Asked Questions with Answers October 4, 1998
This is the list of Frequently Asked Questions for Linux, the free Unix for just about every computer hardware platform on the planet. This document should be read in conjunction with the Linux Documentation Project's HOWTO series.

Request for Comments "RFC's"
The Requests for Comments (RFCs) are a series of notes, started in 1969, about the Internet (originally the ARPANET). The notes discuss many aspects of computing and computer communication focusing in networking protocols, procedures, programs, and concepts, but also including meeting notes, opinion, and sometimes humour. The specification documents of the Internet protocol suite, as defined by the Internet Engineering Task Force (IETF) and its steering group (the IESG), are published as RFCs.